INDEX TO VOLUME XXXVI

Authors, Titles and Subjects

Acetylcholine and depression, 248–257
Ackerman Sigurd H, Sachar Edward J: The lactate theory of anxiety: a review and reevaluation, 69–81 Addiction
  opiate, paradigm for a psychopharmacological model of: methadone pseudowithdrawal syndrome, 189–198
  Systematic extinction of addiction-associated rituals using narcotic antagonists, 458 (abstr)
Age, menarcheal, and personality: the choice of a statistical test of relationship, 321–326
Aggression
  Aggressiveness and testosterone measures in man, 269–274 attenuation of gastric lesions by psychological aspects of, 463–464 (abstr)
  Plasma testosterone: correlation with aggressive behavior and social dominance in man, 469–475 testosterone and, in man, 467–468
Alpha-methyl-dopa-hydrazine, intravenous L-DOPA plus, in depressed patients: average evoked response, learning and behavioral changes, 455–456 (abstr)
Alpha rhythm, human, some factors in the feedback control of, 399–410
Altman N: see Sachar EJ, Altman N, Gruen P, Halpern FS, Sassin J
Anders Thomas F, Chalemian Robert J: The effects of circumcision on sleep-wake states in human neonates, 174–179
Anorexia nervosa demographic and clinical features in 94 cases, 18–26
  immaturity of the circadian secretory program for plasma luteinizing hormone in, 457–458 (abstr)
Anxiety
  Peripheral versus central mechanisms accounting for antianxiety effects of propranolol, 47–56
  lactate theory of: a review and reevaluation, 69–81 and life stress, abnormalities of pregnancy as a function of, 352–362
Arthur Capt. Ransom J: see Rahe Cdr. Richard H, Rubin Robert T, Arthur Capt. Ransom J
Asthma
  acute, observations on patterns of subjective symptomatology of, 129–143 children's, parasympathetic nervous system involvement in, salivary flow as measures of, 206–214
Beary John F, Benson Herbert: A simple psychophysiologic technique which elicits the hypometabolic changes of the relaxation response, 115–120
